

English Writing (2)

Part I: Multiple Choice on Paragraph Writing Skills (30%)

1. To write an effective paragraph, you should _____.
 - A. begin by making a point.
 - B. support that point with specific evidence.
 - C. end with a sentence that rounds off the paragraph.
 - D. all of these
2. A topic sentence is a _____ statement.
 - A. specific
 - B. detailed
 - C. general
 - D. all of these
3. When writing your topic sentence, avoid _____.
 - A. presenting the topic of the paragraph.
 - B. expressing your attitude, opinion, or idea about the topic.
 - C. providing specific details about the topic.
 - D. all of these
4. In this group of words, _____ is a general idea. The other words are specific ideas.
 - A. computer
 - B. wireless router
 - C. technology
 - D. compact disc
5. In this group of words, _____ is a general idea. The other words are specific ideas.
 - A. dating
 - B. adolescence
 - C. growth spurt
 - D. acne
6. In this group of words, _____ is a general idea. The other words are specific ideas.
 - A. diabetes
 - B. cancer
 - C. diseases
 - D. hypertension
7. _____ are words and phrases that indicate relationships between ideas.
 - A. Signal words
 - B. Transitions
 - C. Signposts
 - D. all of these
8. When a writer organizes supporting evidence in a list, usually the most important or interesting item is _____.
 - A. introduced first.
 - B. presented in the middle.
 - C. saved for last.
 - D. all of these

本試題採
双面印刷

第1頁共2頁

系組：英國語文學系二年級 日期：102 年 12 月 28 日 節次：第二節

科目：英文作文

9. _____ is a transition word that indicates listing or emphatic order.
- A. During
B. As
C. Furthermore
D. Often
10. _____ is a transition word that indicates time order.
- A. Moreover
B. For one thing
C. Also
D. While
11. If you make one point and stick to that point, your writing will _____.
A. have unity.
B. have support.
C. have coherence.
D. demonstrate sentence skills.
12. If you back up your point with specific evidence, your writing will _____.
A. have unity.
B. have support.
C. have coherence.
D. demonstrate sentence skills.
13. If you organize and connect specific evidence, your writing will _____.
A. have unity.
B. have support.
C. have coherence.
D. demonstrate sentence skills.
14. If you write clear, error-free sentences, your writing will _____.
A. have unity.
B. have support.
C. have coherence.
D. demonstrate effective sentence skills.
15. Poor grammar and sentence skills can _____.
A. lessen a writer's credibility.
B. be distracting.
C. change the meaning of a sentence.
D. all of these

本試題採
双面印刷

第2頁共2頁

Part II: Writing (70%)

Please compare or contrast shopping at stores and shopping online using one of the methods: block method (one side at a time) or point by point.